

Bahar Niakan named Vice Chair for Human Capital Management SIG

Alexandria, VA – August 8, 2008 - STG International, a leading provider of mission-critical and staffing services for the Federal government, is pleased to announce that Bahar Niakan, Director of HR Solutions, has accepted the position of Vice Chair of the Human Capital Special Interest Group (HC SIG). This fall she will be focusing on bringing HC SIG Government Advisory Panel and developing a plan to address member outreach. Bahar led the engagement of the HHS executives who spoke at the recent session on Federal Succession Planning.

Ms. Niakan has over ten years of management experience including more than six years of Federal experience working in the highest levels of a cabinet-level agency, including the Office of the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, managing high-level special projects and initiatives. These projects have included the development of Senate-confirmed Presidential Appointees and Senior Executive Service performance contracts and training Federal Human Resources staff on the new Enterprise HR System. Bahar also has considerable experience in the customer service arena and has provided customer service training to more than 900 Federal employees. Ms. Niakan joined STG International in 2005, where she has led the human resources practice to help STG serve agencies throughout the Federal government.

About STG International

STG International (www.stginternational.com) is a minority- and woman- owned contracting company. We are dedicated to providing high-quality professional healthcare services to the government and private sector clients. We offer a diverse array of staffing and mission-critical services, offering support in healthcare programs, medical services, human capital management, management consulting, and recruitment. Founded in 1997, STG International has a workforce of 1,600 employees across 37 states.

###