

Bob Hosenfeld to Participate in Industry Advisory Council's Panel Discussion of Chief Human Capital Officers

Alexandria, VA – 11/10/08 – STG International's Vice President of Strategic Initiatives Robert 'Bob' Hosenfeld will participate in the Industry Advisory Council's (IAC) panel discussion of Chief Human Capital Officers (CHCOs). Hosenfeld will join several other CHCOs to discuss the current challenges facing government recruitment and their thoughts on what to expect in coming months.

Mr. Hosenfeld joined STG International in October 2008 as Vice President of Strategic Initiatives. He joined STG after serving as Assistant Commissioner for Human Resource Management for the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP). In that post, he was instrumental in leading CBP to meet the Presidential mandate to double the size of the U.S. Border Patrol by the end of 2008. Mr. Hosenfeld is a recipient of the President's Rank Award in recognition of outstanding leadership, consistently demonstrating strength, integrity, industry, and a relentless commitment to excellence in public service.

Information for this event:

What: Industry Advisory Council (IAC) panel discussion with agency Chief Human Capital Officers.

When: Thursday, November 13, 2008. 9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Please allow time to pass through security.

Location: Thurgood Marshall Building, One Columbus Circle, NE, Washington D.C. 20002. Please proceed to the South Security Desk for Check-in. Please have a picture ID available.

Registration: IAC members should visit the ACT-IAC website at <http://www.actgov.org/eventsregistration>. Prospective IAC members and those government colleagues who are not already involved in ACT or IAC should call 703-208-4800 or send an email to wbalch@actgov.org to register.