

STG International's Michelle Lee to present speakers at the 2008 HCMD Conference

2/27/2008

STG International's President and CEO, Michelle Lee, would like to invite you to The Premier Defense Symposium on Human Capital Management 2008 Conference in Arlington, VA. Michelle will be giving a brief presentation on executive recruiting within the Federal Government and will introduce the speakers for the afternoon session on February 27, 2008 who will talk to a wide variety of topics relevant to Federal Human Capital Management.

The Human Capital Management for Defense 2008 (HCMD 2008) is the premier cross-component forum bringing together leaders in human resources, manpower and personnel, workforce development and force transformation who are responsible for managing the DoD workforce in the midst of emerging threats and changing mission requirements. The HCMD conference initiates a dialogue between members of government, industry, and academia as to how major challenges can be addressed.

For complete information on the upcoming HCMD 2008 Conference, please visit the following link: HCMD 2008 Conference. Conference dates run from February 26-29, 2008 and will be held at the Marriott Crystal Gateway in Arlington, VA.