

Michelle S. Lee Selected as Top 25 Most Powerful Minority Women in Business 2008

Woodbridge, VA – July 1, 2008 – Michelle S. Lee, President and CEO of STG International, Inc., a nationwide provider of human capital management solutions, medical staffing/services, and professional consulting services to the federal government has been selected by the Minority Enterprise Executive Council (MEEC) as one of the Top 25 Most Powerful Minority Women in Business 2008.

MEEC in cooperation with Prudence International Magazine, BMW of Sterling, Omega Technologies, and Alternative Telecommunications Solutions, will host its 4th Annual Awards Luncheon to honor 25 Powerful Minority Women In Business, theme: “Applauding Excellence.” This event is scheduled for Friday, September 12, 2008 and will be held at The Omni Shoreham Hotel located at 2500 Calvert Street, NW, in Washington, D.C. 20008 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

This award recognizes women from corporations as well as the small business arena who are executives, decision-makers, presidents and chief executive officers. Women who are making major contributions to the business community and creating opportunities for other entrepreneurs deserve to be recognized and applauded for their achievements.

About STG International: STG International, Inc. (STG) is a dynamic professional services company dedicated to providing the leading-edge services to our Federal government and Department of Defense clientele. Headquartered in Alexandria, VA, STG was founded in 1997 to provide high quality management and technical services to federal clients. Certified by the U.S. Small Business Administration as a woman-owned, minority business, STG is a financially sound organization poised for continued success, as is evidenced by the company's exponential growth in recent years. As a model SBA success story, STG will be graduating from the 8(a) program in November of 2008. STG International, Inc provides staffing solutions to the Federal government. While the vast majority of STG's business is as the prime contractor, there are a number of contracts where STG is the sub-contractor.

With over 1,500 employees, STG has a presence in over 37 states across the nation. One key to STG's success has been “... the responsiveness we provide to each customer. In spite of the demands brought on by our continued growth, we have remained resolute in our commitment to giving each and every customer the highest possible level of personalized attention,” says Michelle Lee.