STG International Hires Dr. Myra Crouch as Director of Education and Technical Assistance Programs

Dr. Crouch to lead STG International's team of Head Start experts

Alexandria, VA – May 5, 2009 – STG International, Inc. (STG) announces that it has hired Dr. Myra Crouch as Director of Education and Technical Assistance Programs in support of the Department of Health and Human Services' (HHS) Head Start and Early Head Start programs for Regions IV and IX, and the states of New York, Illinois and Louisiana.

Dr. Crouch now leads STG International's Head Start consulting practice, to include adjacent programs related to Head Start in transportation, facilities and management, and administration. Dr. Crouch brings fifteen plus years of experience in managing and directing a large Head Start and Early Head Start program and other early childhood programs. She has extensive expertise and a wealth of knowledge in the field of early childhood education, as it relates to training and technical assistance, as well as professional development and strategic planning.

"Dr. Crouch is truly a thought leader in the field of Head Start and her arrival brings STG International a new perspective and continued focus for our growing program offerings in the areas of early childhood education and grantee technical assistance," said Michelle Lee, CEO and founder of STG International. "We look forward to her leadership as we continue to support these critical Department of Health and Human Services' Head Start and Early Head Start programs."

Prior to joining STG International, Dr. Crouch worked for Trans-Management Systems Corporation as Management and Administration Specialist for the Head Start Knowledge and Information Management Services. She has also worked for Fairfax County (VA) Department of Family Services' Office for Children as their Head Start Program Administrator and gained further professional experience in other Head Start and child development programs while serving as Project Director for the Ohio Head Start-Public School Transition Project.

Dr. Crouch holds a Ph.D. in Applied Psychology from Columbus University, a Masters in Developmental Psychology from Ohio State University, and a Bachelors degree in Psychology from Fayetteville State University.
