

STG International Awarded Human Resources Services BPA with the National Labor Relations Board

Alexandria, VA – October 14, 2009 – STG International, Inc., a leading provider of professional services to the Federal Government, has been awarded a five-year blanket purchase agreement (BPA) to support the National Labor Relations Board, Human Resources Branch.

The National Labor Relations Board is an independent Federal agency created by Congress in the 1930s to administer the National Labor Relations Act, the primary law governing relations between unions and employers in the private sector. The Human Resources Branch, which STG International will specifically assist, provides a full range of human resources management services on an agency-wide basis.

Under the scope of the BPA, STG International will help the Human Resources Branch operationally and strategically improve overall customer experiences and cost savings. In order to meet these goals, STG International will supply the National Labor Relations Board with individuals skilled in diverse HR services, including:

- Employee Relations
- Labor Relations
- Records Maintenance
- Classification, Recruitment and Hiring
- HR Project Management

“The NLRB plays an important role ensuring fair treatment for Americans on the job,” said Michelle Lee, president and CEO of STG International. “Being in the staffing industry, we feel particularly connected to this issue. Not only are we glad to demonstrate our HR aptitude through yet another contract win, but we’re particularly proud to support such a vital American institution.”
