STG International, Inc. Wins $4.5 Million Contract to Work with the Office of Public Health Emergency Medical Countermeasures (OPHEMC)

– STG Will Provide Human Resources Recruiting Services Support –

Alexandria, VA – Nov. 9, 2006 – STG International, a premier provider of professional and technical services to the federal government, was awarded a contract to provide human resources recruiting services to the Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Public Health Emergency Preparedness (OPHEP). The contract, for a five year period, is valued at approximately $4.5 million.

STG will provide strategic recruitment, marketing, HR, and related support services to OPHEP for organizational expansion related to Project Bioshield, (which provides the government with the ability to develop countermeasures needed to protect the U.S. against weapons of mass destruction), Advanced Research and Development, Pandemic Influenza and any future requirements. Anticipated areas of support also include staffing support, planning, forecasting, and recruitment outreach.

“We are very excited to extend our HR and recruitment strategy methodologies with OPHEP in support of their critical public health mission,” says Michelle Lee, President and CEO of STG International. “STG has had a proven track record providing HR recruiting services to organizations with a scientific hiring challenge and we know we can assist OPHEP in meeting their human capital challenges.”
