

STG International Awarded $7 Million Department of Justice Contract

Alexandria, VA – September 22, 2009 – STG International, Inc. announces its first Department of Justice (DOJ) contract win. Valued at $7 million for up to five years, the contract will provide the Office of Justice Programs' (OJP) Office of the Chief Financial Officer (OCFO) with staffing support for its Customer Service Center.

STG International will place a highly qualified team of employees in the OCFO Customer Service Center, which includes the Financial Management Information System 2 (FMIS2) Helpdesk. In addition to fielding customer inquiries on a wide range of financial topics, STG International's staff will participate in outreach projects that support the Financial Analysis and Accounting Division.

"It is always gratifying to have the opportunity to demonstrate for a new Federal customer the superior service and added value that STG International employees provide," says Michelle Lee, president and CEO of STG International. "Supporting quality customer service is something that STG International is well-positioned to do. Our staff has been providing Head Start programs with improved grantee support since 2003. STG International will apply those same high-performance standards to this new contract with the Department of Justice, and that is a guarantee."
