STG International Awarded $399,000 Contract from the U.S. Patent Trademark Office

– STG Will Assist in Providing Human Capital Services to USPTO Employees –

Alexandria, VA – Nov. 09, 2006 – STG International, a premier provider of professional, medical and technical services to the federal government, was awarded a contract by the U.S. Patent Trademark Office (USPTO), an agency of the Department of Commerce, to assist in providing human capital services to USPTO employees. The agency provides processing patent and trademark applications and disseminating patent and trademark information.

The $399,000 contract began in May 2006 and will run through September 2007. STG International will provide staffing specialists working in the USPTO Human Resources Department and Delegated Examining Unit (DEU).

“We are committed to providing highly qualified, customer service oriented HR specialists so that we may ensure that PTO is able to successfully accomplish its mission,” said Dale Colbert, Program Manager, HR Solutions, STG International. “We are excited about working with the employees of PTO and hope to continue our great partnership.”
