

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STGi Takes Next Step in Supporting the Head Start Mission

STGi takes advantage of an opportunity to support Head Start.

ALEXANDRIA, VA, December 23, 2010 –STG International, Inc. (STGi) announced today they have partnered with The Edward Mazique Parent Child Center to offer their support not only through donations but through continual hands-on effort by STGi employees. This includes organizing volunteer days, donating computers to support their Parent Learning initiative, and IT support to help enhance their website.

Over the years, STGi has been committed to promoting school readiness through educational, health, nutritional, and social services. This partnership will provide STGi with the opportunity to positively impact the local community through the Head Start programs like The Edward C. Mazique Parent Child Center, Inc. The Edward C. Mazique Parent Child Center, Inc. has delivered high quality Head Start and Early Head Start programs to children and their families over the past four decades in the District of Columbia.

“This partnership with the Edward C. Mazique Parent Child Center, Inc. allows STGi to reach out to the community as well as the children at the center, says CEO and Founder of STGi, Michelle Lee. “STGi is delighted to continue its involvement on the Head Start and Early Head Start initiatives for years to come.”

Almeta R. Keys, M.Ed. Executive Director had these comments about the new partnership, “We are extremely pleased to be in partnership with STGi. Michelle Lee’s commitment and dedication is a labor of love that speaks volume to the type of organization STGi represents. By partnering with STGi, our organization is receiving the opportunity to enhance the quality of our services as we continue to do “What is Best for Children.””

To begin our partnership, STGi will participate in the Edward C. Mazique Parent Child Center’s, Inc. “Save Our Season” Festival. The purpose of the festival is to receive gifts of toys, educational materials and warm clothes to our 280 children and families. STGi donated 100 toys to help the agency to reach its goal and volunteers helped to pass out gifts to children. With the donation made by STGi, the Edward C. Mazique Parent Child Center, Inc. was able to give gifts to the final seven classrooms, ensuring that all of the classes at the agency were provided with gifts. Almeta R. Keys, M.Ed. Executive Director of the organization passes “Thank you” messages on behalf of the entire Mazique’s families.

About STGi

STG International, Inc. is a woman-owned minority business, founded in 1997 to provide human capital management, medical, and professional services to Federal and private sector clients. Thanks to steady, exponential growth, STGi now employs more than 1,700 professionals in 41 states and territories, with headquarters in Alexandria, VA, and additional offices across the country. Dedicated to the Human Mission, STGi proudly supports the nation's most fundamental imperatives; including Head Start training and technical assistance, medical care for Soldiers, and government-wide human resource initiatives, among others. Learn more by visiting www.STGInternational.com.

CONTACT: Jessica Semon, media@stginternational.com, (703) 385-8178 ext. 220

###