STGi Ranks 35th as Top DHS Contractors by Government Security News

Ranking demonstrates STGi's success in providing top quality services to our nation's government agencies .

ALEXANDRIA, VA, February 9, 2011– STG International, Inc. (STGi) announced today that the company has been ranked 35th for the 2010 fiscal year as a top DHS Contractor by Government Security News. The publication compiles this list based on the amount of contract awards recorded by the Federal Procurement Data Center, which gathers official information on millions of Federal government transactions each year.

Michelle S. Lee, CEO of STGi states, “Inclusion in this list validates our mission to support the Federal government. We look forward to building upon our solid relationship with the DHS.”

STGi is ranked 35th out of 100 distinguished companies who work to support the DHS. STGi’s work with the DHS began in 2004 and continues to grow as STGi consistently delivers quality for its Federal clients.
