

Michelle S. Lee Speaks at Association for Corporate Growth Monthly Breakfast Event

Tyson's Corner, VA – June 20th, 2008 – Michelle S. Lee, President and CEO of STG International, Inc., a nationwide provider of human capital management solutions, medical services/staffing, and professional consulting services to federal government was invited to speak at the Association for Corporate Growth's Monthly Breakfast Meeting. The purpose of the discussion was to provide insight into the history of STG International and the company's impressive growth rate since its inception in 1997. Ms. Lee provided anecdotes and lessons learned to those present at the event; Ms. Lee was the first woman speaker to present at an ACG Capital Region event.

Founded in 1954, the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG) is the premier global association for professionals involved in corporate growth, corporate development, and mergers and acquisitions. Leaders in corporations, private equity, finance, and professional service firms focused on building value in their organizations belong to ACG. They recognize the multiple benefits of networking within an influential community of executives growing public and private companies worldwide. For more than 50 years, ACG members have focused on strategic activities that increase revenues, profits and, ultimately, stakeholder value. Today ACG stands at more than 11,000 members representing Fortune 500, Fortune 1000, FTSE 100, and mid-market companies in 53 chapters in North America and Europe.

Ms. Lee, who founded STG International, Inc in 1997, possesses more than 20 years of experience in all aspects of business operations and government contracting. She is a hands-on executive, involved in every aspect of business operations and customer development within STG. As President and CEO of STG, she has successfully transitioned and managed hundreds of business contracts, worth more than $750 million, during the course of her career to date.
