

STGi Expands Management Team with James Burrell

ALEXANDRIA, VA, July 26, 2011 – STG International, Inc. (STGi) announced today that it has hired James Burrell as its newest Deputy Director.

Mr. Burrell will oversee recruitment and placement of healthcare professionals working in correctional and detention facilities. With 27 years of correctional management experience with the Federal Bureau of Prisons, Mr. Burrell has held various assignments related to correctional healthcare in Federal, State, and private correctional facilities.

Prior to his retirement with the Federal Bureau of Prisons, Mr. Burrell was Chief of the Privatization Management Branch in Washington, D.C. His professional experience includes assignments as Associate Warden at ADMAX in Florence, Colorado, and the Federal Correctional Institution in Talladega, Alabama, and Chief of Detention Services. In addition, he worked closely with Immigration Services during panel reviews of Mariel Cubans at the United States Penitentiary in Atlanta, Georgia.

“We are delighted to have Mr. Burrell join our team.” said STGi President and CEO, Michelle S. Lee. “We look forward to integrating his unique blend of experience and ability with our outstanding correctional healthcare support team.”

Mr. Burrell has a Master of Science from the University of West Alabama, a Bachelor of Science from Tuskegee University, and several contract management certificates from ESI and George Washington University.

About STGi

STG International, Inc. (STGi) is a woman-owned minority business, founded in 1997 to provide human capital management, medical, and professional services to Federal and private sector clients. Dedicated to the Human Mission, STGi proudly supports the nation’s most fundamental imperatives which includes Head Start training and technical assistance, medical care for Soldiers, and government-wide recruitment, among others.

Learn more by visiting www.stginternational.com.

CONTACT: Christine Runton, media@stginternational.com, 703.578.6030 x236