STG International, Inc. Named Washington SmartCEO/Grant Thornton Future 50 Winner for Second Consecutive Year

– Award Based Upon Employee and Revenue Growth Over Past Three Years –

Alexandria, VA – Jan. 09, 2007 – STG International, a premier provider of technical, professional and medical services to the federal government, was named Washington SmartCEO/Grant Thornton 2007 Future 50 winner for the second consecutive year. The award comes after STG made its second appearance on both The Washington Technology Fast 50, of the fastest growing businesses providing services to the government, and the Inc. 500, which lists the 500 fastest growing, privately owned, companies in the U.S.

The Future 50 program celebrates business growth and acknowledges businesses who are keeping the Washington business climate vibrant and exciting. The award is based on employee and revenue growth during the past three years. STG's impressive growth record has resulted in expanded services and operating locations in 33 states, as well as Washington, DC and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. In addition, STG recently hired its 1,000th employee during July 2006 and is expected to reach 1200 employees during 2007. There were 117 nominations vying for the Future 50, and to qualify, a business must be at least three years old and no more than 10 years old.

Michelle S. Lee,
 President and CEO,
 STG International, Inc.

“Being a member of the Future 50 for the second consecutive year is a testament to our company’s success,” said Michelle Lee, President and CEO of STG International. “Our growth and recognition confirms that STG is committed to providing the best value and service to our customers in the federal government.”
