

Media Contact:
Michele Capots
(703) 447-4690
mmcapots@comcast.net

STG International, Inc. Wins Contract from National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA)

– Contract to Determine National Agency Check and Inquiry Certification of Documents in Official Personnel Files –

Alexandria, VA – Nov. 09, 2006 – STG International, Inc., a premiere provider of professional, medical and technical services to the federal government, was awarded a $272,532 contract from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), an agency of the U.S. Department of Commerce.

The contract is to assist NOAA in reviewing its employee records to determine completion of a National Agency Check and Inquiry (NACI), or other security investigation. STG's work will help to ensure employment is consistent with national security and agency requirements. STG International will do this through a visual search of the documents in each Official Personnel Files (OPF). Verification will be needed for approximately 3,000 OPFs in five regional offices, including Silver Spring, MD, Norfolk, VA, Seattle, WA, Kansas City, MO, and Boulder, CO.

“We are honored to assist NOAA with this effort,” said Michelle Lee, STG International President and CEO.

Michelle S. Lee,
President and CEO,
STG International, Inc.

About STG International, Inc.

STG International, Inc., currently ranked #128 on Inc. magazine's list of the 500 fastest growing, privately owned companies in the U.S., provides professional, medical, and technical services to the federal government in the areas of human capital management, management consulting, information technology, medical services and staffing, and professional and administrative services. Since its founding by Michelle Lee in 1997, STG International has grown to a staff of over 1,000 professionals in 33 states and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The company is headquartered in Alexandria, VA. For more information about STG International, visit www.stginternational.com.