

STG International Wins Repeat Business from Government Customer

In partnership with Sayre and Associates, company wins a re-compete contract to continue providing federal human resources support

Alexandria, VA – September 10, 2009 – Through a government contracts award process that now places a bigger emphasis on quality performance, STG International has proudly won an important repeat contract. In partnership with Sayres and Associates Corporation, STG International will continue to provide human resources support to its government customer.

For the duration of the three-year contract, Team Sayres will continue to provide training, administrative, supply and management support services to the Department of Homeland Security’s (DHS), United States Citizenship and Immigration Services’ (USCIS) Training and Career Development Division (TCDD).

“I am proud of the great work STG International’s staff has demonstrated to our Homeland Security customers in the past, meriting our continued partnership,” said Michelle Lee, president and CEO of STG International. “Building a solid team from within STG International, and in partnership with Sayres, has strengthened our relationship with the government and given DHS a great level of trust in our capabilities. I have the utmost confidence that we will continue to deliver committed, quality work that will only yield further excellence and opportunity.”
