

STGi Takes Fifth Straight Future 50 Award, Enters Hall of Fame

ALEXANDRIA, VA, February 17, 2010 – STG International, Inc. (STGi) today announced its induction into Washington Smart CEO Magazine's Future 50 Hall of Fame, having won the Future 50 Award for the fifth consecutive year.

The Future 50 Award is an annual prize honoring the fifty Washington-area companies with superior staff and revenue growth over a three-year span. STGi becomes one of only three companies to have earned a place in the Hall of Fame.

"Sustained growth, like the kind we've experienced, is a rare and humbling thing," said STGi CEO Michelle Lee. "In this uncertain economy, we're particularly proud of the jobs we've created and the contributions we've made to the Federal Government, one of the key engines in today's recovery."

Ms. Lee was recognized in May as a finalist for the 2009 Ernst & Young Washington D.C. Entrepreneur of the Year Award. Combined, this year's Future 50 honorees employ 29,000 people and generate $9 billion in revenue.
