STGi Expands Management Team with the Addition of Dr. John E Barnett

Dr. John E. Barnett Appointed as Corporate Medical Officer, Will Speak at NCCHC Conference

ALEXANDRIA, VA, April 23, 2010 – STG International, Inc. (STGi) announced today the addition of Dr. John E. Barnett as Corporate Medical Officer. Dr. Barnett's abundance of correctional health and experience expertise aid in the optimization and expansion of STGi's nationwide government healthcare initiative.

"We are thrilled that the distinguished Dr. Barnett has chosen STGi as his destination," said STGi CEO Michelle Lee. "In particular, we anticipate a significant boost to our Detention Health programs."

Dr. Barnett will be responsible for medical oversight and clinical supervision of multiple STGi healthcare contracts and programs. He has extensive experience with the Veterans Administration, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, and several private correctional healthcare companies. He will provide expertise and oversee the analysis and acquisition of contract opportunities, participate in the implementation of medical contracts, and make presentations to clients. Dr. Barnett is Board Certified in Quality Assurance and Utilization Management, and has routinely succeeded in improving the health care for inmates using innovative and low-cost techniques.

Dr. Barnett will speak at the upcoming NCCHC Updates in Correctional Health Care Conference on April 24-27th in Nashville, TN. His presentation is titled, "Current Recommendations for Cardiovascular Disease Prevention."

STGi's new Corporate Medical Officer received his Doctor of Medicine from Southwestern Medical School and his Bachelor of Science from Texas Wesleyan College.
