

For Immediate Release

STGi's VP of Strategic Initiatives Speaks at the Government Partner Forum: Partnering to Improve Citizen Experiences

Robert Hosenfeld participates in the panel discussion: What Keeps Your Government Customer Up At Night?

ALEXANDRIA, VA, August 5, 2010 - STG International, Inc. (STGi) announced today that Mr. Robert Hosenfeld, VP of Strategic Initiatives, will be speaking on a panel at the Government Partner Forum: Partnering to Improve Citizen Experiences on August 17th in McLean, VA. This half-day forum will discuss industry trends, best practices and opportunities to help government address requirements to improve citizen engagement while reducing costs.

"I look forward to the panel and sharing my insight on the government market," says Robert Hosenfeld, VP of Strategic Initiatives at STGi. "This event will help to provide more information to businesses about the government market and how to partner with them."

The event is sponsored by RightNow Technologies and you can learn more or register for the event by visiting their website.

About STGi:

STG International, Inc. (STGi) is a woman-owned minority business, founded in 1997 to provide human capital management, medical, and professional services to Federal and private sector clients. Thanks to steady, exponential growth, STGi now employs more than 1,700 professionals in 38 states and territories, with headquarters in Alexandria, VA, and additional offices across the country. Dedicated to the Human Mission, STGi proudly supports the nation's most fundamental imperatives; including Head Start training and technical assistance, medical care for Soldiers, and government-wide recruitment, among others. Learn more by visiting www.STGInternational.com.

CONTACT: Jessica Semon, media@stginternational.com, (703) 385-8178 ext. 220

###