

STG International hosts Casino Night for Retired Veterans at Vinson Hall Retirement Community

McLean, VA – May 2, 2008 – STG International is committed to the well-being of retired veterans who have served this country for so long. On May 2, 2008 STG International hosted a Casino Night for the residents at Vinson Hall. Vinson Hall is the independent living residence of a premier continuing care retirement community; open to former military officers and their immediate family members, Vinson Hall has been serving residents since 1969.

Employees of STG International volunteered their time and talents to entertain the residents of Vinson Hall as well as express their gratitude for the service they provided to this great nation. The festivities included: poker, roulette, craps, slot machines, and raffling prizes. In addition, musical entertainment provided by vocalists Katie Weeks, Amanda Aldag, and Alexandra Normile with accompaniment by pianist Jeff Bell. Songs of the 1940s brought nostalgic approvals by residents. Whether it is through medical facilities or by volunteering time to honor the past; STG International is committed to serving those who serve and their families.

About STG International: STG International (www.stginternational.com) provides a diverse array of staffing and mission-critical services, offering support in healthcare programs, medical services, human capital management, management consulting, and recruitment. Founded in 1997, STG International has a workforce of 1,400 employees across 34 states.

Vinson Hall Corporation is a non-profit Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC) that offers a broad range of services, activities and care. It is located just three miles from our Nation's Capital, and is nestled in the quiet setting of McLean, Virginia on a beautifully landscaped and wooded twenty acre campus.

###