

Michelle S. Lee Participates in “Women-Owned Firms Doing Business with the Feds” Panel Discussion

Tyson’s Corner, VA – June 17th, 2008 – Michelle S. Lee, President and CEO of STG International, Inc., a nationwide provider of human capital management solutions medical staffing/services, and professional consulting services to federal government was invited to participate in the “Women-Owned Firms Doing Business with the Feds” panel. Speakers from federal agencies, Capitol Hill and the private sector discussed issues especially relevant to women-owned businesses. Other speakers in the panel included:

- Linda G. Wright, Associate Director, OSDDBU, Naval Facilities Engineering Command
- Shirley Perez, Women-Owned Business Representative, OSDDBU, NASA
- Cathy Garman, Professional Staff Member, House Armed Services Committee
- Rebecca Sutton, CEO, Basic Engineering Concepts and Technologies, Inc.
- Molly Gimmel, Executive Vice President, Design to Delivery, Inc./President, NAWBO, Northern VA Chapter

Prior to founding the firm in 1997, Ms. Lee held leadership roles at large consulting firms for over 25 years. Ms. Lee holds a Masters degree from Texas Woman’s University and has been recognized as a leader in her industry. In 2006, Ms. Lee was recognized by the Washington Business Journal as one of 25 “Women Who Mean Business.” The following year, she was honored by the Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce’s Northern Virginian Government Contractors Council (GovCon), the Professional Services Council (PSC), and Washington Technology Magazine as a finalist for the Executive of the Year. As President and CEO of STG, she has successfully transitioned and managed hundreds of business contracts, worth more than $750 million, during the course of her career to date.

For more information on this event please visit the following link:

http://www.pilieromazza.com/docs/Michelle%20Lee%20Profile%20_3_.pdf

###